

Public Narrative Framework

Marshall Ganz Narrative Strategy Adaption

I. Story of Self

Tell the personal story of why you were called to organize. Highlight a specific choice point and the moral outcome.

II. Story of Us

Connect your narrative to the community's collective history, values, and shared values. What binds you together?

III. Story of Now

Present the urgent challenge facing the movement today. What is the choice, and what is the immediate collective call to action?

IV. 90-Second Narrative Pitch

A structured script outline combining Self, Us, and Now to deliver at rallies or public hearings.

Radiant Threshold · Injustice Reform Network

This document is free and open-source for community organizers, licensed under Creative Commons. Access more at the resources directory.